

I urge you to make no rule changes that would allow the banking industry to circumvent the 'no-call' in the state of Indiana.

The banks are continually bombarding us with mailings and newspaper ads. Surely, they have no need to add phone calls also.

Indiana's no call list had done a very good job of stopping annoying calls at all hours.